FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Teach, Honor & Remember: The National Day of Learning "Teach to Remember 9/11" Returns in Two Parts and A Special 25-Year Observance Programming!

Shanksville, PA – As the world prepares for the 25-Year Observance of the events of 9/11/2001, Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial proudly announce the upcoming 2026 National Day of Learning “Teach to Remember 9/11”. This free, award-winning virtual education program is designed to engage students across the country in meaningful remembrance and learning.

This year’s program is offered in two parts and features both live and on-demand learning opportunities. Students will have the opportunity to engage directly with National Park Rangers through dedicated Q&A sessions, allowing them to ask questions and deepen their understanding of the events and legacy of Flight 93.

Week 1 sessions, taking place September 3–4, will feature live-streamed Ranger programs designed to introduce students to the story of Flight 93 through guided interpretation and interactive learning.

Week 2 sessions, scheduled for September 8–9 and September 11, will include an interview with Adam Shaffer, Chief of Interpretation & Education at Flight 93 National Memorial and Rick Kettell, Senior FAA official who tracked Flight 93 on 9/11, a student Q&A session, and teacher presentations from the Education Symposium. September 11 will also feature a live-streamed morning observance and an afternoon ceremony.

Live Stream of the 25-Year Observance Ceremony

Students of all grade levels are invited to honor and remember the heroic actions of the forty passengers and crew members via a live stream of the 25-Year Observance Ceremony at Flight 93 National Memorial. For classrooms unable to join live, a pre-recorded Moment of Remembrance will be available in the Zoom Video Gallery upon registration.

Registration Now Open

Educators are invited to register to reserve their classroom spot for this free, award-winning virtual program:

- Live session schedules
