FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Educators Nationwide Invited to Join 2025 National Day of Learning "Teach to Remember 9/11"

Shanksville, PA – August 14, 2025 — As the world prepares to observe the 24th anniversary of the events of 9/11/2001, Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial proudly announce the upcoming 2025 National Day of Learning "Teach to Remember 9/11". This free, award-winning virtual education program is designed to engage students across the country in meaningful remembrance and learning.

From Monday, September 8 through Friday, September 12, educators and students from grades K-12 are invited to participate in live from the Classroom at Flight 93 National Memorial education sessions. On-demand sessions and additional resources are also available to educators.

New for 2025: Interactive Learning Experiences

This year's program introduces live interactive programming facilitated by National Park Service Rangers and concludes with Q&A sessions.

- "Voices of Courage" (Grades 4-12): Students explore final communications from Flight 93, gaining insight into the bravery of its passengers and crew.
- "Aircraft Down! Discovering the Truth" (Grades 9-12): A hands-on-session analyzing black box data to reconstruct the timeline of events.
- Live Virtual Tour (Grades K-12): A guided tour of the Memorial, highlighting its design and the legacy of Flight 93's heroes.

Live Stream of the 9/11 Observance Ceremony

All grade levels are invited to honor and remember the heroic actions of the forty passengers and crew members via a live stream of the Twenty-fourth Observance Ceremony at Flight 93 National Memorial. For classrooms unable to join live, a pre-recorded Moment of Remembrance will be available in the Zoom Video Gallery upon registration.
