FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friends of Flight 93 to Host “Pints for Parks,” Debuting Commemorative Brew for 25-Year Observance of September 11

Community event at Forbes Trail Brewing will feature live music, local food, and a special limited edition “Giving Back IPA” honoring the forty heroes of Flight 93.

Stoystown, PA — April 8, 2026 | Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial invites the community to raise a pint for a meaningful cause during the annual Pints for Parks celebration on Saturday, April 25 at Forbes Trail Brewing. The event coincides with National Volunteer Week and Earth Day, bringing supporters together to honor the forty passengers and crew members of Flight 93.

This year, Forbes Trail Brewing will debut a commemorative Giving Back IPA in observance of the 25-Year Observance of September 11. The event offers a unique opportunity to remember the heroes of Flight 93 while supporting the memorial that preserves and honors their courage.

Attendees can enjoy live music, local food, and event-exclusive Pints for Parks merchandise, including apparel and collectibles. Entertainment will be provided by Bo Moore, and food will be available from Jackie’s Groovy Cheese Truck. Proceeds from the commemorative brew and merchandise will benefit Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial in support of the Flight 93 National Memorial.

“Pints for Parks is a way for our community to come together while supporting education, environmental stewardship, and visitation at Flight 93,” said Donna Gibson, Executive Director of Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial.

Members of the media are invited to attend and capture the debut of the commemorative brew and interviews with organizers.

Raise a pint in remembrance of the forty heroes of Flight 93, whose courage continues to inspire generations. We will never forget.
