PRESS RELEASE

Families to Run in the New York Marathon to Benefit the Friends of Flight 93

Flight 93 National Memorial, October 5, 2022 | On November 6, 2022, 10 Flight 93 family members will run the New York City Marathon. This year's runners are Jennifer Bucco, Debby Bullentini, Alexis Conlon, Lee Daignault, Gordon Felt, Kathryn Felt, Jennifer Glick, Kiki Homer, Emily Schenkel, and Kathy West. The runners are sponsored by the Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial who will be the benefactor of the funds raised. The family members who are running have raised almost $20,000 in funds.

The Friends organization plans to put the funds raised toward the enhancements to the Western Overlook Project at the Memorial site. The Western Overlook is where family members were brought for their first look at the crash site in September 2001. The area has a historical significance not only as the area where families had their first look at the crash site but adjacent to this area is where the crime scene investigation was conducted. The goal is to enhance the visitor's experience by creating a space where Rangers can do interpretive programs or visitors can sit, take in the sights, and reflect upon the events of 9/11.

The Friends of Flight 93 continued support of Flight 93 National Memorial ensures that the national memorial will continue to beautify the outdoor spaces, and remain accessible, relevant, and inspirational to present and future generations.
