PRESS RELEASE

The Friends of Flight 93 are Partnering with Forbes Trail Brewing to Host a New Friends Program, Pints for Parks

Flight 93 National Memorial, September 19, 2022 | National Public Lands Day is September 24, 2022. This is earmarked as the Nation's largest single-day volunteer event for public lands. Established in 1994 and held annually on the fourth Saturday in September, this celebration brings thousands of volunteers to help restore and improve public lands around the country.

This year the theme of National Public Lands Day is GIVING BACK TOGETHER. Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial, the non-profit partner to Flight 93 National Memorial is teaming up with the Forbes Trail Brewery to raise pints and funds for enhancements to the Western Overlook at Flight 93 National Memorial. The Western Overlook is where family members were first brought to see the crash site in September of 2001. Enhancements to the overlook include an area where Park Rangers can do interpretation and help visitors understand the historical significance of the space as well as beautification to provide a space where visitors can sit and reflect on the events that occurred on the site over 21 years ago.

Friends invite you to join them on Saturday, September 24 beginning at 2:00 PM at Forbes Trail Brewery where head brew master Mike Fahy has brewed a special Giving Back Pale Ale. Proceeds from the sale of this brew will be donated to the Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial and the Western Overlook project. Musicians donating their time for the event are Bam and Jeff Perigo, Allison Borek, Stan Supraniwicz and Chris Daugherty. Smoky Trail BBQ food truck will have a variety of food items for sale. The Friends will have a rendition of the western overlook enhancements for participants. The brewery is child and pet friendly. Bring a chair and sit for a while to enjoy the beautiful outdoors while listening to music.

Event shirts, hats and stickers will be available. There will be a drawing for door prizes every hour.
