FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tickets Now Available for United 93: A 25th Anniversary Screening and Conversation

GETTYSBURG, PA — The Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial and the Gettysburg Film Festival have announced that tickets are now on sale for United 93: A 25th Anniversary Screening and Conversation, taking place on Saturday, September 12, 2026, at 6:00 p.m. at Gettysburg's Majestic Theater.

The special commemorative event will feature a screening of the acclaimed film United 93, along with discussions led by historian and author Tom McMillen, cast members from the film, Flight 93 family members, and Friends Executive Director Donna Gibson. Together, they will reflect on the events of September 11, 2001, and the enduring legacy of the passengers and crew members of United Flight 93.

Marking the 25th anniversary of 9/11, the program will provide an opportunity for audiences to honor the courage, sacrifice, and unity demonstrated aboard United Flight 93 while considering the lessons that continue to inspire future generations.

"Twenty-five years later, the story of Flight 93 continues to inspire Americans through its powerful example of courage, selflessness, and service to others," said Donna Gibson, Executive Director of Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial. "This event provides an opportunity not only to remember those who were lost, but also to reflect on the values they demonstrated and our responsibility to preserve their legacy."

Tickets may be purchased through Gettysburg's Majestic Theater at Tickets | United 93: A 25th Anniversary Screening and Conversation | Majestic Theater. Early reservations are encouraged.
